

Psalm 4

ST. LEONARDS. 8.7.8.5.

To the Overseer with Stringed Instruments. —A Psalm of David.

Digby S. Wrangham, 1885, alt., and Daniel Bearden, 2022

A. Cyril Barham-Gould, 1925

1. An - swer, when I call, from heav - en, God, who dost my cause de - fend:
2. Sons of men, how long, blas-phem-ing, Will ye 'gainst mine hon - our rise?
3. Know ye that the Lord a - part hath Set the god - ly for him - self;
4. In your heart up - on your bed say, "Trem-ble ye, sin not." Be still;
5. There be man - y ev - er say - ing, 'Who will show us an - y good?'
6. Thou hast caused me joy, most pleas-ing To my grate - ful heart with - in:
7. I will lay me down and rest me, Lord, at once, of sweet peace sure;

Thou hast room in strait - ness giv - en; Fa - vor give my prayer.
O how long, of vain things dream-ing, Will ye seek for lies?
When I call the Lord will to me Hear at - ten - tive - ly.
Sac - ri - fice right sac - ri - fic - es, In the Lord, trust ye.
Lord, Thy face on earth dis - play - ing, Shed its beams' bright flood.
More than when, so fast in - creas - ing, Was the corn and wine.
For Thou on - ly so hast blest me, Made me dwell se - cure.