

Psalm 5

IN THE GARDEN. 8.9.10.7.10.8.10.7.

To the Overseer, 'Concerning the Inheritances.' —A Psalm of David.

Daniel Bearden, 2022

C. Austin Miles, 1912

1. Give ear un - to my words O Lord sight: Un - der - stand my loud fer-vent
 2. The boast - ful can't stand in thy sight: Thou dost hate all van - i - ty
 3. In thy right - eous - ness, lead me, Lord; Be - cause of my en - e -
 4. De - clare thou them guilt - ty, O God; Let them fall by their own cry - ing. O my King, my God, for to thee I'll pray. My work - ers. Those who speak in and lies, pros - them shalt thou de - stroy: The mies; - sels; Make Cast them straight out and for their plen - ti - ous ful to me re - volts; Thy coun - sels; Cast them straight out and for their plen - ti - ous ful to me re - volts; Thy voice, hear in the morn - ing; In the morn - ing, Lord, I'll di - Lord ab - hors the blood - y face. fraud men. And There I is noth - ing, th' a bun - dance of way be - fore my a - gainst thee. But let noth - ing those trust - wor - thy they've re - belled my a - gainst thee. But let noth - ing those trust - ing in rect thy kind - ness, And in ex - pec - ta - tion will wait. Thou art in their mouths; Will Their in - ward part thine house: And thee re - joice: Let them ev - er shout for joy, ruin; Their

 Be -

not in a God who de - lights in wrong, No e - vil can dwell with thee.
 throat's thy fear I'll bow down with - in Thy tem - ple of ho - li - ness.
 cause an o - pen sep - ul - chre; They flat - ter of with their tongues.
 Lord wilt bless the right - eous ones; Let Sur - round - ing as with a re - joice.
 shield.

5. For the