

Psalm 8

CORONATION. C.M.

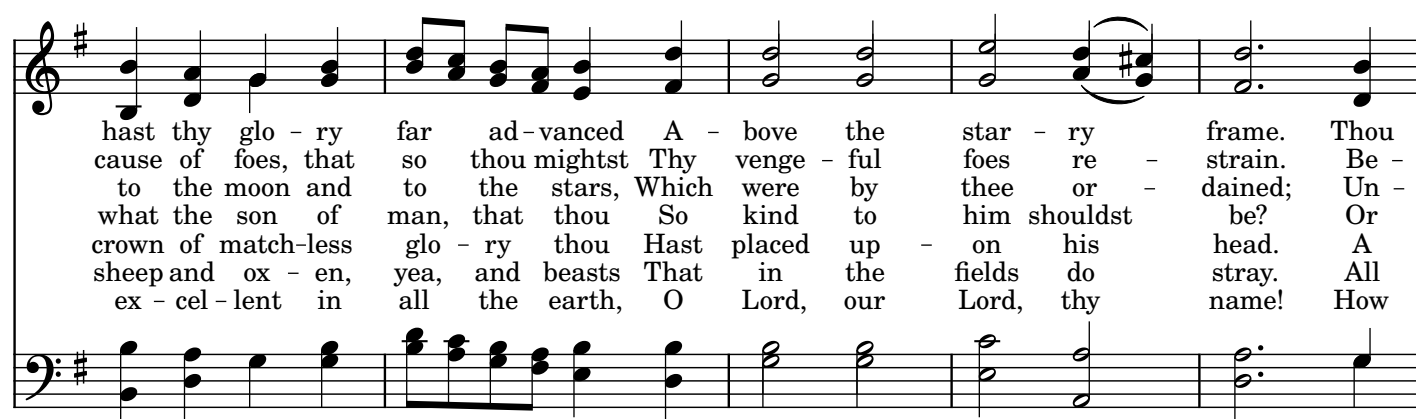

To the Overseer, "For the Wine Vats." A Psalm of David.

The Psalter, 1900, alt.

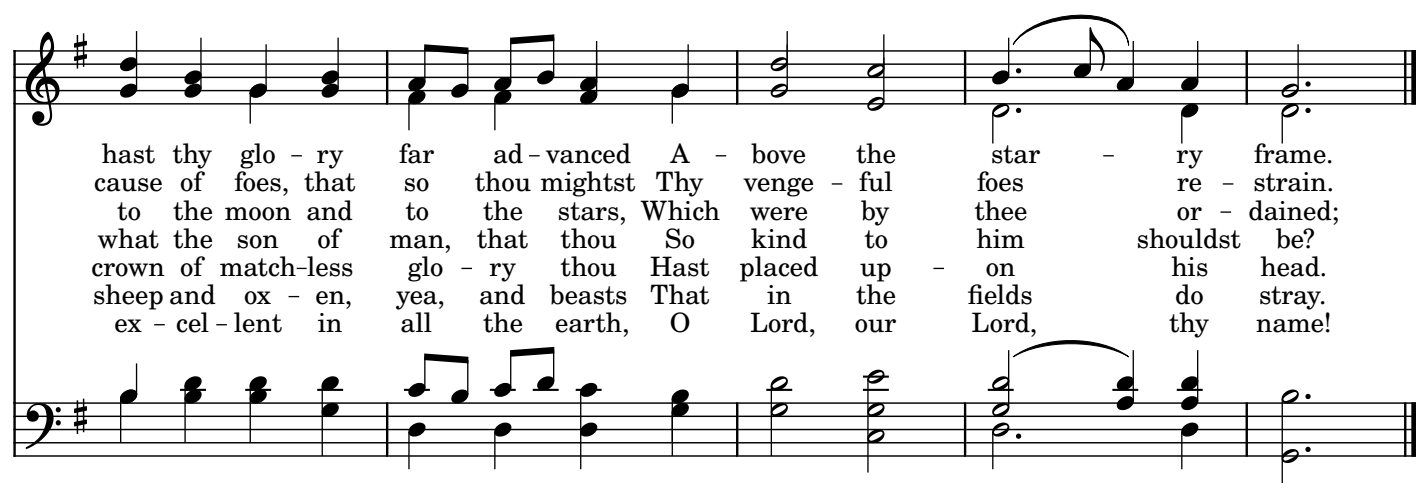

Oliver Holden, 1793

1. How ex - cel - lent in all the earth, O Lord, our Lord, thy name! Thou
 2. From mouths of babes and suck - lings thou, O Lord, didst strength or - dain, Be -
 3. When to the heav - ens I look up, Which thine own fing - ers framed, Un -
 4. Then say I, what is man, that he, Re - mem - bered is by thee? Or
 5. For thou a lit - tle low - er hast Him than the an - gels made, A
 6. Ap - point - ed lord of all thy works, Be - neath him thou didst lay All
 7. The fowls of air, and fish of sea, All pas - sing through the same. How hast thy glo - ry far ad - vanced A - bove the star - ry frame. Thou cause of foes, that so thou mightst Thy venge - ful foes re - strain. Be - to the moon and to the stars, Which were by thee or - dained; Un - what the son of man, that thou So kind to him shouldst be? Or crown of match-less glo - ry thou Hast placed up - on his head. A sheep and ox - en, yea, and beasts That in the fields do stray. All ex - cel - lent in all the earth, O Lord, our Lord, thy name! How hast thy glo - ry far ad - vanced A - bove the star - ry frame.

 cause of foes, that so thou mightst Thy venge - ful foes re - strain.
 to the moon and to the stars, Which were by thee or - dained;
 what the son of man, that thou So kind to him shouldst be?
 crown of match-less glo - ry thou Hast placed up - on his head.
 sheep and ox - en, yea, and beasts That in the fields do stray.
 ex - cel - lent in all the earth, O Lord, our Lord, thy name!